

Mystery at the Art Colony

It's 1902 and you're invited to dine at the new Byrdcliffe Art Colony. You'll socialize with Ralph Whitehead and his wife Jane Byrd McCall. Artist Bolton Brown and hotelier Elizabeth Reynolds will also be present along with college professor Percy Longfellow. You'll be fussed over by a loyal butler and a fortune-hunting maid. Katherine Kerry, a local writer for the Kingston Daily Freeman, observes much more than merriment and gaiety when she witnesses a murder.

GUESS WHODUNIT AND BE ELIGIBLE FOR PRIZES!
LIVE PERIOD MUSIC!
REFRESHMENTS AVAILABLE!

Saturday, September 9th | 7:00 PM
Sunday, September 10th | 5:00 PM
Mescal Hornbeck Community Center,
56 Rock City Road, Woodstock

NOTE: Although "Mystery at the Art Colony" presents historic characters it is a work of historic fiction. It is designed to entertain not to dishonor the reputations of anyone.